General W. Smith.

Our readers have, no doubt, seen the announcement in our columns of the partnership which has existed for several years under the style of Hite & Small.

Mr. Geo. W. Small will continue the business at the old stand. To those who know Mr. Small, it is entirely unnecessary for us to say one word in his favor.

Hite & Small is one of the oldest in the city, and has become widely known throughout the entire south and west. Mr. Small, the successor of the firm, is a gentleman of great experience in his business, and of acknowledged excellent taste, and we can assure those who may trade with him that they will find his goods all he claims them to be.

Mr. Small has just returned from the Eastern cities where he held in a very large and superior stock of goods, expressly selected for the spring trade. Those who are in want of carpets, curtains, table linen, and house furnishings of all kinds, for drapery, hotel or steamboat, will find in his stock all that the most exquisite taste, desire, or the longest purse can purchase.

Carpets that Queen Victoria or Empress Eugenie would be proud to tread, curtains that would grace the Tuilleries, and other articles of the same style of beauty and elegance, are to be seen in his establishment.

Unquestionably we are in such matters, we shall not attempt any description, but advise all who wish to refurnish dwelling, hotel or steamboat, to give him a call, and we are certain they will be delighted with the goods, and once customers always customers. Go and try him.

LAST EXERCISE.—Under this heading the Cincinnati Gazette, of yesterday, spins out nearly a column about a difficulty between Quartermaster Dickerson and a merchant named Barbour. It seems that Mrs. Dickerson refused to allow the windows in her room at the hotel to be illuminated, and when the proprietor of the house did it anyway, she twice put out the candles.

Barbour and his wife board at the same hotel, but, on sitting down to table with Dickerson and his wife, told his wife to change to another table, and they did so. This act was taken by D. as an insult to his wife, and on Wednesday he lay in wait for her, and began to pick a quarrel, the result of which was that Barbour threw him down and stood over him. The affair has created great excitement in the goodly city of Cincinnati.

On behalf of the patients of general hospital No. 2, I return their sincere and grateful thanks to Mrs. Isaac H. Dollis, of this city, for a liberal and generous donation of fifty blankets and delicacies, furnished from time to time to the patients of this hospital. Also, to Miss Reeling, of this city, for numerous donations.

HENRY M. DAVIS,
Hospital Steward, U. S. A.

DECEASED SOLDIERS.—The following soldiers have died in the hospital at Bardonia since the 17th of February:

Henry Wyman, Co. C, 47th Indiana, Feb. 18.
Nelson Hendrix, Co. F, 24th Kentucky, Feb. 19.

James F. Manning, Co. G, 24th Kentucky, Feb. 19.
Truman Biglow, Co. G, 64th Ohio, Feb. 22.

BURNED JOHNSON AT OHIO.—Gen. Bushrod Johnson, lately taken prisoner at Fort Donelson, is said to be a native of Ohio. A nephew of his says he was born in Belmont county, Ohio, in 1817, and was appointed a cadet in the West Point Military Academy in 1836, by Judge Kennon.

From the South.

SOME TALK has been had upon the street corners as to the policy best to be pursued in case the enemy advance upon the city and country, and seem likely to capture the city. The Federal forces are a great distance from us, and we hope and believe they will never be able to reach here. Certainly they will not if the whole people arouse in their might and present a solid front against the invaders. The movement in progress here aims to stir up the people to this universal resistance, and it seems probable that it will be successful.

The talk upon the corners is not always remarkably sensible. Men who spend their time in diluting their lungs at such places are very often not the most wise, calm and brave sort of characters. They are apt to talk large and not small. They often cloak their own cowardice under words. Often, too, their counsels spring from panic-stricken hearts, though they wear the color and take the shape of the offering of courage and patriotism.—Memphis Avalanche, Feb. 17th.

UNION MEN IN THE RICHMOND GOVERNMENT WORK-SHOPS.

[From the Richmond Examiner, of Feb. 21st.]

We announced in our yesterday's issue that forty of the employees in the Government workshops had, on Tuesday last, refused to take the oath of allegiance, and we should have published their names but for a positive order to the contrary, given by Gen. Winder to the gentleman at the artillery works, who has the list of the recusants in possession. Yet, though these names are kept secret, the fact that so large a number of traitors have been hitherto employed in those departments, the laboratory and the artillery works, has given rise to much angry excitement and indignation.

Men recoiled yesterday and compared notes of rumors which have from time to time come to us regarding the quality of the ammunition furnished by this city to our army on the Potomac.

It has been told here, and never contradicted, that the Richmond fixed ammunition was so mean, and even dangerous, that the Washington Artillery refused to use it after the first experiment; one of the shells, designed to be thrown half a mile, having exploded within ten feet of the gun. A shell is also said actually to have exploded before leaving the barrel of a cannon of the Potomac Artillery. And, further, it is said that not one in ten of the Richmond shells exploded at all, so defective are the fuses. Since the discovery of this large party of our enemies in our midst, our people think they perceive a ready explanation of the complaints of the artillery corps in the field.

A CHANGE OF MEN OR A CHANGE OF POLICY DEMANDED.

[From the Richmond Examiner, of Feb. 21st.]

These are times to try men's souls. The consequence of a defensive policy, and of the folly of transferring the war to the valley of the Mississippi, where the enemy have their best ground, instead of attacking them in their central and most vulnerable point—Pennsylvania—by aggressive war, are now upon us. We have permitted them, without interruption, to mature their programme of surrounding and compressing us, which was announced more than eight months ago. What our Government has done to meet the issue, beside wrangling with popular generals and piddling over petty jobs, the Lord only knows. Judging by results so far, it is over the present and probable future, the payment of to-morrow is a bitter mockery and a miserable compensation for the ruin of a free people. A child with a bubble, an old man with a young wife, are partial illustrations of the deplorable folly.

AMUSEMENTS.

THEATER.—The theater was densely crowded last night—the occasion of Mrs. Lott's lecture. We have no time for a general notice of the performance; suffice it to say that the whole performance was a decided success, and Mrs. L. may remember with pride and satisfaction her recent benefit in Louisville.

General Order No. 13.

HEADQUARTERS DEPT. OF THE ARMY,
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 24, 1892.

Major F. F. Flint, 16th U. S. Infantry, commanding Louisville barracks, is directed to join the company of detachments and parties of soldiers and individual officers and men arriving in the city of Louisville. They will report to him immediately on their arrival in the city.

Major Flint will see that all parties, detachments, and individuals, as named above, are facilitated in the accomplishment of their business, and that they then proceed to join the company of detachments and parties of soldiers and individual officers and men arriving in the city of Louisville. They will report to him immediately on their arrival in the city.

The Provost Marshal will fill any requisition for guards made by Major Flint for the execution of the duty herein assigned him.

By command of Brig. Gen. Buell,
James B. Fay, A. A. G. Chief of Staff.

Mayor's Office, Feb. 26, 1892. f28 d15

DIED.

On the evening of the 18th February, after a lingering illness, caused by pneumonia, Mrs. Mary Ann Taylor, wife of John Taylor, died at her residence, 1214 North Third street, at 11 o'clock. She was born in the town of Bardonia, Ohio, on the 10th of March, 1817. Her husband died on the 10th of March, 1887. She was a member of the Baptist Church, and was a devoted wife and mother. She is survived by three children, two sons and one daughter. The funeral will be held on Monday, the 22nd inst., at 10 o'clock, from the residence. Interment in the Bardonia cemetery.

AMERICAN WATCHES FOR AMERICANS!

No more English or French rubbish, made to sell, but not to keep time.

Why should an American buy a foreign watch, when he can get a better and cheaper one at home? Why should an American needlessly enrich foreign watch manufacturers at the expense of our own men?

Why should an American send gold to England and France, our coverts but bitter enemies, when gold is so much needed at home?

Why should an American buy an imported watch, which, in nine cases out of ten, will cost more to keep in order for one year, than its original price, and which was never intended to keep time under any circumstances?

Why should Americans not patronize more generally American manufacturers
